Flute Maestro K. Bhaskaran had his first Sabha concert at the Music Academy in Chennai in 1978. His flute is known for his melodic beauty, and rich tone. His creativity is unique and based on a sound tradition too, as a disciple of 90-year old flutist Mayavaram Saraswathi Ammal (popularly known as Mayavaram Papa). A senior A-graded artist, he has received several awards as a performing musician, - Flute Mali award, Senior Instrumentalist Award, (from the Music Academy), Asthana Vidwan of the Kanchi Mutt, etc. More details from <http://www.kbhaskaran.com/> and <http://fluteclasses.wordpress.com/> and from the wikipedia.

Deepa Shastry is a NJ-based violinist who initially learnt from Vidhushi Savithri Srinivas in Bangalore and then continued with Late Vid Sri S V Ananth. Deepa is now a disciple of Vid Mysore H K Narasimha Murthy (Mysore) and Vid Bangalore H S Sudhindra. She has won several awards and accompanied several artistes for many years.

Narendra is a NJ-based mridangam artiste who has been performing mridangam accompaniment for several artistes. He was initiated into Mridangam by Vidwan Late Shri Kanchana V Murthy in Shimoga, Karnataka and later advanced his training under Vidwan Palghat Shri. T.R. Rajamani
